PRINCIPAL'S / SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL REPORT

Hollywood Elementary School had a very productive year. Our staff and students worked extremely hard to make necessary improvements. We made great gains that were evident in our accomplishments. Among our accomplishments are the following:

- Callie Herlong received National Board Certification;
- Rhonda Rivers was selected as Distinguished Reading Teacher for the district;
- Mendi Tucker was selected Teacher of the Year for the school and will compete for the district honor in the fall;
- One student received the "Discovery Channel Young Scientist" award;
- Two classes were recognized by placing second in a state level conservation contest;
- Three students received Junior Scholastic recognition;
- One student received the Lieutenant Governor's Writing Award;
- Twenty-two students earned awards in the State Fair competition;
- Our school community sponsored a community Christmas project-"The Giving Tree";
- Our school raised over $1,500 for the Pennies for Patients project to benefit the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society;
- Our school has raised over $11,000 for the St. Jude's Research Foundation.

The school community successfully completed our Southern Association of Colleges and Schools review and our five-year school renewal plan. The teachers continued professional development in the South Carolina State Standards and cultural diversity.

Hollywood is honored to have an outstanding parent organization (PACE - Parents Organization Concerned About Education) and a School Improvement Council that is very active. The School Improvement Council met monthly to discuss and address concerns facing our school. PACE raised funds to meet the needs of these concerns noted by the council. The parent organization provided supplies and materials such as Accelerated Reader collections, projection microscopes, and playground equipment.

Hollywood is nestled in a small rural community. We pride ourselves in the staff and student dedication and loyalty to our school. We truly are a school where teachers and students excel, and parents and community care!
